No. 489-TB/ĐHKHCN

NOTICE

on the organization of the English course for native English-speaking students

- At the proposal of the Foreign Languages Centre regarding the implementation of the English course for native English-speaking students;

- Pursuant to the conclusion of the Rector Board of the University of Science and Technology of Hanoi regarding the implementation of the English course for native English-speaking students,

The University of Science and Technology of Hanoi hereby announces the organization of English course for native English-speaking students, as follows:

1. Applicable students

Native English-speaking students for whom English is a compulsory (Core) course in their undergraduate training program.

2. Learning and assessment options

Native English-speaking students may choose one of the following two options:

- Option 1: Attend the course and take the examination

Students attend all classes according to the course schedule and fulfill all learning, assessment, and final examination requirements in accordance with the applicable regulations.

- Option 2: Take the assessment without attending the course

Students may register not to attend the English classes and instead take an English assessment organized by the University to obtain a grade for the corresponding English course.

Students choosing Option 2 must submit an application to register for the English assessment using the University's prescribed form and within the specified deadline.

The result of the assessment shall be used as the grade for the corresponding English course in accordance with the University's regulations.

3. Implementation

The Foreign Languages Centre, Departments, and relevant units shall communicate the above information to students falling within the applicable category, enabling them to choose the appropriate option and complete the registration within the specified deadline.

For any questions regarding registration and the organization of the assessment, students are requested to contact the Foreign Languages Centre for guidance.

Recipients:

- Rector Board,
- Departments, FLC, DSA, DQE,
- Students,
